

Aregado Manteque (PT)

(Workers Party - Partido dos Trabalhadores)

Slogan: The better Guinea that you are looking for, vote for me
Militant of peace and thruth

Strengthening of democracy and less bureaucracy
Solid finances and a better economy
Work for all and good salaries
A safe country security wise
Education, Health and culture
Care for all citizen
Preserve the nature and the environment
Creation of infrastructures for the country

Mário “Maruca” Lopes da Rosa (Independent)

N/A

João Bernardo “Nino” Vieira (Independent)

Slogan: A President that unifies all Guinean in peace and brotherhood
A people’s candidate
For peace, stability and reconciliation
A President for all Guinean
The candidate of National Union

Solve the leadership crisis in Guinea-Bissau
Restoration of state prestige and state authority
Approval a new constitution to review the presidential system and deal with the way to integrate traditional society and customary law into modern judicial system.
Restoration of the prestige of the judiciary
Revision of the electoral code which should include the constitution of new electoral circles and vote for the emigrants.
Improvement the public administration system
Freedom of press and media
In external policy, launching of a “Gives a last chance” campaign to find solidarity funds for Guinea-Bissau. Double citizenship will be discussed.
Fight against corruption
Drinkable water and social security
On the Cultural aspect, rehabilitation and restoration of historical monuments pre-colonial and colonial ones will be done.

Adelino Mano Queta (Independent)

Slogan: A consensual candidate

Role of the President and its responsibilities
Consolidation of the national unity, peace and democracy
Poverty reduction
Armed Forces Reform
Fighting corruption and bureaucracy with civil society
Sovereignty and international cooperation

Idriça Djaló (PUN)

[Partido da Unidade Nacional – Party of National Unity]

Slogan: A young president, Men of thruth

N/A

Faustino Fudut Imbali (Manifesto do Povo)

[Manidesto do Povo – People’s Manifesto]

Slogan : Djitu ten “there must be a way”

N/A

Koumba Yalá (PRS)

[Partido da Renovação Social – Party of the Social Renovation]

Slogan: A man with clean hands

N/A

João Tatis Sá (PPG)

[Partido Popular Guineense – Guinean Popular Party]

Slogan: Peace, Justice, Stability, Unity, Work for All

N/A

Empossa Ié “Paulino” (Independent)

Slogan: President of the Youth! For National Unity! Peace! Justice! Progress!

Solve the economical dependency of Guinea-Bissau with the support of three main sectors (Agriculture, Fisheries, Tourism) and create a a culture of micro businesses (caju, mangoes, peanuts, fisheries, palm oil...)

Reform of the armed forces

Improvement of the judicial system

Improvement of the education system

Creation of a social security system
Reform of the public administration (better salaries for civil servants and better conditions)
Incentives to the youth and sports development
Cultural policy base on arts and music development
Policy for the Guinean emigration
Public transport policy with road network improvement

Francisco José Fadul (PUSD)

[Partido Unido Social Democrata – United Social Democrat Party]

Slogan: N/A

Respect for the constitutional order and the laws of the state
Improve the public administration system
Reform of the Armed Forces (AF should not be involved in politics)
National reconciliation
Decentralization (create the law of autarchy)
Give support to the Guinea emigrants
Media independent
Improve workers conditions
For a Bissau Guinean nationality concept based on a broader spectrum

Malam Bacai Sanhá (PAIGC)

[Partido Africano da Independência da Guiné e Cabo Verde – African party for the independence of Guinea and Cape Verde].

Slogan: The Right vote, We have hope with Malam Bacai Sanhá.

The political manifesto called “an agenda for Guinea-Bissau” was publicly presented on 6 June in Bissau.

Main points of the Manifesto are:

Strengthening democracy, the state authority and the rule of law
Give civil society a role to play
Political stability
Reform of the armed forces
Continuation of the DDR (Disarmament, Demobilization and Reintegration) program for former liberation war fighters
Social cohesion
Reform of the Armed Forces

Mamadú Iaiá Djaló (Independent)

Slogan: Hope, Unity and Reconstruction

The political manifesto “The new hope” points out:

State authority consolidation
Fight against poverty
Reform of the public administration
Justice for all citizens
Better education for the young generation

Antonieta Rosa Gomes (Fórum Cívico Guineense)
(Civic Forum – Social Democracy – Fórum Cívico Guineense – Social Democracia)

Slogan: For peace, Stability, Unity and National Development

The 16 point manifesto concentrates on the strengthening of State authority and Rule of law and with a strong emphasis on Social rights (family protection, gender issues...). Other points include: Allowance for damages for Victims of the 1998 war. Fair salaries for workers, strengthen health system and fight against tuberculosis and HIV, special fund for micro-credit for women agricultural and trade activities.