

CHIEF OBSERVER OF EU ELECTION OBSERVATION MISSION RETURNS TO GUINEA-BISSAU FOR THE SECOND ROUND OF THE EARLY PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS

Friday, 24 July, 12h35, Airport Osvaldo Vieira, Bissau

Bissau, 23 July 2009 – The Chief Observer of the European Union Election Observation Mission (EU EOM) to observe the anticipated presidential elections in Republic of Guinea-Bissau, Johan Van Hecke, returns to the country tomorrow, Friday, 24 July, to observe the second round of elections on the 26 July.

The Chief Observer arrives at Airport Osvaldo Vieira, in Bissau, at 12h35. There will be an opportunity for journalists to register the first remarks of EU EOM Chief Observer Johan Van Hecke concerning the observation of the second round of the early presidential elections.

For more information please contact:

Press Officer Cláudia Aranda, Mobile Phone: 6245544, email: claudia.aranda@eueomgbissau.org

Assistant Malam Djassi, Mobile Phone: 6244447, email: malam.djassi@eueomgbissau.org

<http://www.eueomgbissau.org>